Thinking outside the box

Attendees to the American Academy of Periodontology 105th annual meeting are all smiles Sunday afternoon. (Photos/Humberto Estrada, today Staff)

By today Staff

Stepping out of one's comfort zone can be a good thing sometimes, and here at the American Academy of Periodontology 105th annual meeting, there are plenty of opportunities to try things you never have before.

Want to get more in touch with your creative side? Head over to the Perio Park (booth No. 150) and unleash your Chicago-inspired inner graffiti artist at the Graffiti Wall set up for attendees to take a break from all the analytical thinking and express a bit more right-hemisphere creativity. (You can also take a moment to relax, continue conversations with colleagues, charge electronic devices and buy some food and beverages while you are there.)

Want to take a new look at solving old problems? Many of the exhibitors are offering new products and technology that do just that.

Place your bids for the AAP Foundation's silent auction

If you haven't yet had a chance to check out the AAP Foundation's silent auction, and maybe cast a bid or four, there is still time.

Join the AAP Foundation at its booth in the registration area today to learn more about the foundation's work, bid on the silent auction and celebrate the organization's 29 years of service to the specialty.

While there, you can also enter raffles, score giveaways, snap a selfie and more.

The AAP Foundation booth will be open until 5 p.m. today, and from 7:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday.

For those who can't make it over to the AAP Foundation area, the silent auction bidding is being done online. Bid from your smartphone or computer, with no app needed. You'll even get a text if you've been outbid.

The AAP Foundation has more than 100 products and services to bid on, from dental equipment to unique fashion accessories to hotel stays. Text AAPF to 52182 to browse.

For more information, contact Dana Camacho at (800) 282-4867 or by email at dana@perio.org.

an intraoral cryotherapy device that effectively relieves oral pain and swelling from oral or maxillofacial surgeries. Described as an alternative to prescription opioids, Denta-Cool says its product has improved effectiveness of cold therapy treatment in dentistry by uniformly cooling the entire mouth from the inside.

Over at booth No. 621, ACE Surgical Supply understands the importance of delivering a truly compatible implant solution for your entire clinical network without having to overpay for it in both time and money. That's why the company is introducing the new OCTAGON Bone Level Tapered (BLT) implant to its line of infinity dental implant systems. The all-new OCTAGON BLT has a tapered body design allowing for primary ured systems in the market today.

Want to expand your knowledge while also getting a new perspective on topics important to you and your practice? Why not check out the aptly titled "Thinking Outside the Box: Comparison of Various Surgical Approaches for the Enhancement Soft Tissue Grafts Outcome," from 10:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. today, led by Lourdes Ann Christopher, Jonathan H. Do, and Amar Katranji.

Other sessions worth checking out, also from 10:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. today, include "The Periodontist and the Opioid Crisis" with Kumar Subramanian, "More on the New Periodontal Disease Classification: Shades of Grey" with Mark A. Reynolds and Rachel A. Schallhorn and "Osseodensification: Myth vs Reality" with Jeffrey Ganeles, Jill A. Helms and Robert A. Horowitz.
