patient-held, completely universal intraoral camera,” said Erin Primerano of DrQuickLook. “Users can also transfer saved images to a computer or patient file. It works right out of the box and is made here in the USA.”

- Excellerator RT, booth No. 1640 – Propel Orthodontics says the microosteoperforation performed with the Excelleration drivers stimulates the alveolar bone in orthodontic treatment in order to accelerate tooth movement and facilitate challenging movements, thereby increasing predictability and reducing a patient’s overall orthodontic treatment time. Propel says it can be used in conjunction with braces or clear aligners and takes just minutes to perform during a patient’s regularly scheduled office visit.

powers. Co-engineered by Orascoptic and Konica Minolta, this revolutionary optical design boasts a three-step variable magnification technology and edge-to-edge high-definition resolution. You now have the power to customize your magnification for specific techniques or zoom in and out to change your perspective during a procedure. It’s like having three loupes in one!

- BioRoot RCS, booth No. 330 – Septodont’s new BioRoot RCS is a bioactive and biocompatible root canal sealer with active biosilicate technology. This pure mineral formulation does not stain teeth and eliminates post-op sensitivity, according to Septodont. The strong seal and tight interface provides adhesive to dentin and gutta-percha points, giving a void-free seal, the company says.

Exodontia at the tip of your fingers

By Nadean Burkett,
Extraction Academy

■ It is estimated that more than 20 million teeth are extracted each year in the United States. Although it is considered a routine procedure, it is also one in which the most complications occur, including infection and pain, leading to discord in the doctor-patient relationship.

Is it any wonder that extractions are the procedure most feared by patients and referred out by general practitioners?

To address this clinical challenge, Nexus Dentistry has developed the Extraction Academy. Dr. Gregory Greenwood, chief dental officer of Nexus, is an internationally renowned lecturer on the latest trends in oral, IM, IN and IV conscious sedation in dentistry and is a mentor to clinicians who want to master their knowledge and skills in surgical procedures. This is particularly relevant in tooth extraction, which arguably is the most difficult procedure to perform successfully.

The development of the Extraction Academy program was a collaboration with Greenwood's colleague, Dr.

• Learn everything you ever wanted to know about exodontia at the Extraction Academy, taking place Sunday here in Anaheim. (Photo/Provided by the Extraction Academy)

Kianor Shah, the visionary of the project. Although every dental school teaches students how to extract a tooth, it is stigmatized by the public as the most brutal dental procedure.

Greenwood and Shah share the belief that just because every dentist is trained to extract teeth does not mean they should. With current advancements and technology available, extractions can be done safely and more comfortably for the patient.

The success of the Extraction Academy program is based on the teachings of both theory and technique, including how to avoid complications and retain a patient for life.

The skills learned and practiced by those dentists in the program are beneficial to both patient and doctor. Patients will no longer have the inconvenience and higher fees incurred when referred to a specialist, while the doctor's ability to retain the patient within his or her practice has both financial and other advantages.

For Greenwood and his colleagues at the Extraction Academy, the rewards in their teaching and mentorship with dentists are realized most profoundly by the positive feedback of doctors who employ these techniques in their practice.

They also immensely appreciate the tremendous outpouring of support from their sponsors, which allows them to fulfill their commitment to global community outreach by working with charitable organizations, such as The Wisdom Tooth Project, Oral Health America and Mercy Ships, to provide access to quality clinical care to those less fortunate around the world.

The Extraction Academy is holding a one-day, hands-on workshop on Sunday, immediately following the CDA Presents. For more information, please visit www.extacademy.com.

Here in Anaheim

The Extraction Academy will take place Sunday here in Anaheim. Topics include full-mouth extractions, impacted teeth, how to expose teeth for orthodontic treatment, wisdom teeth (any impaction category), calcified teeth, fully and partially erupted teeth, infected teeth, root tip extractions, complex cases, head and neck anatomy, pharmacology, intravenous sedation, guided-bone regeneration, tips and tricks, complications management, immediate implants, surgical instruments, nomenclature, proper use and application. Tuition fee is $1,750 (with $150 coupon discount).
